REGIONAL FISHERIES
COALITION

The Paul G. Ancich Memorial Scholarship established in 2011 by the Washington State Regional Fisheries Coalition in honor of Paul G. Ancich, a dedicated coalition member, lifelong commercial fisherman and a passionate advocate towards the preservation of wild salmon.

Who We Are:

The Regional Fisheries Coalition represents 14 Regional Fisheries Enhancement Groups (RFEs) within Washington State. The RFEs collectively work to rebuild salmon populations, and restore and protect salmon habitat within their regions. Through federal, state, county, tribal and community partners, RFEs play an important role in local salmon restoration, monitoring and education.

The Scholarship Selection Process:

This perpetual scholarship, is designed to support the aspirations of students with goals of a natural science profession within Washington State.

In 2017, seven of the fourteen RFE's participating in this scholarship opportunity are the Nooksack SEA, Skagit Fisheries Enhancement Group, Sound Salmon Solutions, South Puget Sound SEG, North Olympic Salmon Coalition, Tri-State Steelheaders Salmon Enhancement Group and the Hood Canal Salmon Enhancement Group.

Interested individuals from these seven regions (1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7 & 13) are to submit their scholarship application by June 1, 2017. After June 1, these seven RFE organizations will review their area applicants and submit one qualified application to the WA Regional Fisheries Coalition scholarship committee. The scholarship committee will then review the top applicants from each region and make the final award selection by July 1, 2017.

Application Deadline: June 1st (postmarked)
